An exchange prints eight "authorized" portraits of Mrs. Grover Cleveland. The family resemblance is not striking.

GENERAL HAZEN is off to the Pacific Coast. We shall have no weather until he returns.

MR. TILGHAM had the wisdom to provide for his own monument. If General Grant had been in a position to do this New York would not have found it necessary to throw itself on the national charity.

REVENUE to the legislative ticket nominated by the Democrats of Wood county, the Parkersburg Sentinel (Dem.) says: "Now let us go to work and elect them." It is probably no error to note in this a stray streak of sarcasm.

THIS week the two Sams are to be seen and heard on the Moundville camp grounds. There is not such another pair—a reforming lawyer and a reformed journalist—pulling together. It is so rare that lawyers reform. Of course these evangelists will draw large crowds.

THE struggle to capture the Democratic legislative nominees in Ohio county is on full head. If it were not that it would be a betrayal of party secrets, we think there would be little risk in naming the winning side. In these matters management tells.

EX-SOLICITOR-GENERAL GOODE seems to be necessary to the Administration's peace of mind. Out of one job he is quickly deviated into another, and it is telephone business all the time. Nobody need now think that Garland will wake up one fine morning and find his head in the waste-basket.

THERE will not be any Federal officers in the Ohio county convention, and none will go from this county to the Congressional Convention. This is not based on inside information—it is just a little common sense. The INTELLIGENCER sympathizes with the boys, but its relations with the White House are such that it must print the news.

THE Wheel Democrat thinks that a little more of the activity Judge Brannon is showing now might have elected him two years ago. And farther south the Democrat, that if Colonel Ben Wilson be nominated he will have a sure thing of it by from 500 to 800 majority. "If you want to defeat Gold nominate Wilson." Well, two Democrats have tried that and everybody knows what happened.

HONOR HOLT, of the Western Republican, favors the INTELLIGENCER with a copy of a circumstantial letter to the President concerning the "obtrusive partnership" of office-holders about convention time. For the information of those gentlemen holding office, in the rush of business, may have overlooked the President's order, it is here reproduced:

EXECUTIVE MANDATE. }
WASHINGTON, July 14, 1886.

To the Heads of Departments in the Service of the General Government:

I deem this a proper time to especially warn all subordinates in the several departments and office-holders under the use of their official positions in attempts to control political movements in their localities. Office-holders are the agents of the people, and not the people's agents. Not only in the political and labor vote to the Government, but they should scrupulously avoid, in their political action as well as in the discharge of their official duty, offending by a display of obtrusive partiality to their neighbors who have relations with them as public officials. They should also constantly remember that their party friends from whom they have received preferment have not invested them with the power of exclusively managing political affairs. They have no right as office-holders to dictate the political action of their party associates or to throttle freedom of action within party lines by methods and practices which pervert every useful and valuable purpose for party organization. The influence of Federal office-holders should not be felt in the manipulation of political primary meetings and nominating conventions. The use by these officials of their positions to compass their selections of delegates to political conventions is indecent and unfair, and proper regard for the proprieties and requirements of official place will also prevent their assuming the active conduct of political affairs. Individuals, however, and activity in political affairs are by no means condemned. Office-holders are neither disqualified nor forbidden the exercise of political privileges, but their privileges are not enlarged nor is their duty to party increased to pernicious activity by office-holders.

A just discrimination in this regard between the things a citizen may properly do and the purposes for which a public office should not be used is easy in the light of a correct appreciation of the relation between the people and those entrusted with official place and a consideration of the necessity under our form of government of political action free from official coercion. You are requested to communicate the substance of these views to those for whose guidance they are intended.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

If West Virginians holding office under Mr. Cleveland ask whether the President is earnest, we are obliged to say that we don't know. This we do know, that if their influence is not "to be felt in the manipulation of political primary meetings and nominating conventions," it will be necessary to recast some of the probabilities of the opening campaign. In addition to the cases cited by Editor Holt we submit a few more, that the President may understand what interpretation is put upon his order by his very obedient and much obliged friends in West Virginia.

FOURTH DISTRICT TURNOUTS.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., August 15.—The Wirt county Democrats on Saturday nominated D. C. Cato, Camden's man, for the Legislature. There was a split in the Congressional delegation between Jackson and Gibson—about half for each. Please note county downed Camden's man for the Legislature and instructed for Jackson. There was a heavy split and the convention adjourned in great confusion.

KEATINGS AT MALLS.

LONDON, August 15.—Three shocks of earthquake were felt in Malta yesterday at intervals of eight hours. No damage was done, but the people were made frantic with fear.

RANK VIOLATIONS

OF THE PRESIDENT'S ORDER

In Regard to Federal Office-holders Taking Part in Political Conventions—Collector McGraw and Postal Clerk McGary Cited as Examples—Other Cases.

The following furnished the INTELLIGENCER a copy of a letter which was registered and mailed to President Cleveland:

WESTON, LAURENCE O. W. V., August 13, 1886.

To Grover Cleveland, President of the U. S. Sir:—Having no reason to think that you are insincere in your expressed desire to prevent United States officials under your administration from shaping and manipulating conventions in behalf of particular candidates, and believing that you meant exactly what you said in your recent order in relation thereto, I desire to call your attention to flagrant violations of said order which have recently occurred in this State, to give you an opportunity to vindicate the principles which professedly animate your administration.

I charge that John T. McGraw, Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of West Virginia, has been actively engaged in manipulating political conventions in the interest of J. N. Camden, a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from West Virginia, and in the interest of Wm. L. Wilson, who has been nominated to the United States Congress from the Second Congressional District. And I cite you to the following instances of violations of your said order:

First—Said John T. McGraw was present at the meeting of the Senatorial Executive Committee of the Tenth district of West Virginia, which met at Beverly in the county of Randolph, and there he succeeded in having the convention for said Senatorial district called to meet at Buckhannon, W. Va., on the 20th inst. of August, 1886. It is considered by the friends of Mr. Camden that a convention called early in the campaign would operate to his advantage.

Second—I charge that John T. McGraw was actively engaged in manipulating the Democratic county convention of Taylor county at Gratton in the month of July, 1886, called for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Senatorial convention at Buckhannon as aforesaid, and to the Congressional Convention at Charleston for the Second District of West Virginia.

Third—I charge that said John T. McGraw was in attendance at the said Senatorial convention at Buckhannon, and took with him a number of free transportation being furnished to said delegates. That at said convention he was industriously engaged in shaping the deliberations of said body. And that a number of McGraw's subordinates from various counties were present at the convention, and were actively engaged in the present aiding and abetting him in his efforts. And that the nomination of the successful candidate was largely if not entirely due to the labor of said McGraw and his co-operating subordinates.

Fourth—I charge that William B. McGary, a postal clerk on the C. & G. R. R. has for ten weeks been actively engaged in political work in the interest of J. N. Camden's re-election and that during the greater part of this time said McGary has been actively engaged in securing the nomination of delegates to the County Convention at the time of the said McGary's nomination, in the meantime subsidizing his brother, Thomas B. McGary to fill his place on the dates as follows: June 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, 18, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 28, 29, 30, July 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16,
